5. What are the possible outcomes of my investment?

This Fund is a wholesale feeder fund that invests in Value Partners Hong Kong Limited's Value Partners High Dividend-Stocks Fund, which in turn invests into stock markets of the Asia Pacific region, with Greater China focus. The Fund will concentrate on investing in interest-bearing or dividend-distributing debt and equity securities of companies or issuer in the Asian Market, while maintaining a flexible allocation to other assets which include cash, deposits, short-term paper and other fixed income instruments. The performance of this Fund would to a great extent be linked to the price movements of the Target Fund which in turn is reliant on the performance of the equities and other assets that it is invested in.

As such, the value of your investments will be reliant on the performance of the Target Fund. This means that if the Target Fund performs well, the Fund may reflect similar performance and likewise if the performance of the Target Fund falls, the value of your investment will also be affected. The Fund's performance is dependent on the Target Fund Manager's expertise in managing the Fund.

Subject to the availability of income, the Fund endeavours to distribute income on a quarterly basis, after the end of its first financial year. Please note that the capital and returns of the Fund are not guaranteed.

* Subject to the Manager's discretion, the investor may negotiate for a lower amount or value.

KEY RISKS

6. What are the key risks associated with this product?

General Risks

- Market risk - Factors that affect the entire market place. Factors such as economic growth, political stability and social environment are some examples of conditions that have an impact on businesses, whether positive or negative.
- Fund management risk - This Fund is a pooled investment. Investor's monies are co-mingled. By investing in a pooled investment, investors rely on the experience and expertise of the Manager to make decision on their investments.
- Performance risk - This Fund is a feeder fund which invests in another collective investment scheme, namely the Target Fund. The performance of the Fund very much depends on the performance of the Target Fund.
- Inflation risk - Inflation rate risk is the risk of potential loss in the purchasing power of investors' investment due to a general increase of consumer prices.
- Loan financing risk - An investor who intends to purchase Units of this Fund using borrowed/financed monies and pledging those Units as collateral for the borrowed/financed monies should be aware that if the price of the Units falls below the borrowed/financed amount, the lender may require the investor to provide additional forms of collaterals or pay additional amounts on top of the investor normal instalment.
- Risk of non-compliance - This refers to the risk where the Manager does not comply with laws, rules, regulations, internal policies, the Deed.
- Operational risk - This risk refers to the possibility of a breakdown in the Manager's internal controls and policies. The breakdown may be as a result of human error (for instance the keying in of wrong details), system failure (causing unnecessary downtime) or even fraud (where employees of the Manager collude with one another).

Note: Please refer to section 4.1 of the Fund's Information Memorandum on further detail of each risk.

Specific Risks

- Concentration risk - The Fund is a feeder fund which invests in a single collective investment scheme. Any adverse effect on the Target Fund will inevitably affect the Fund as well. The performance of the Fund is also dependent on the performance of the Target Fund.
- Liquidity risk - This is the risk that the units of the Target Fund that is held by the Fund cannot be readily sold and converted into cash. This can occur when there is a restriction on realisation of units of the Target Fund.
- Currency risk - The risk is associated with the Fund's underlying investments which are denominated in different currencies than the Fund's base currency, i.e. USD. The impact of the exchange rate movement between USD and the currencies of the underlying investments may result in depreciation or appreciation of the value of the Fund's investments as expressed in USD.
- Target fund manager risk - As a feeder fund, the Fund invests into the Target Fund which is managed by the manager of the Target Fund. The manager of the Fund has no control over the investment technique and knowledge, operational controls and management of the manager of the Target Fund.

Note: Please refer to section 4.2 of the Fund's Information Memorandum on further detail of each risk.

Please note that the Fund, being a unit holder of the Target Fund, assumes the peculiar risks of the Target Fund. Please refer to Section 4.3 of the Information Memorandum for more information on the peculiar risks relating to the Target Fund.

It is important to note that events affecting the investments cannot always be foreseen. Therefore, it is not always possible to protect investments against all risks. The various asset classes generally exhibit different levels of risk. You are recommended to read the whole Information Memorandum to assess the risk of the Fund. If necessary, you should consult your professional adviser(s) for a better understanding of the risks.
